Book a session with RMIT

Since our team started working from home in mid-March, we have conducted 9 Webinars and hosted 35 schools through Live Stream Presentations from Victoria, Interstate Australia, and New Zealand.

Live stream presentation

As you make your way back to on-campus learning, you can continue to book in Live Stream Presentations of our General Presentation as well as Interest Areas.

Future in-person bookings

You are also welcome to request our presence for future School Expos and Off Campus Presentations – we will be in touch about our ability to attend in accordance with government advice.

Live Stream Workshops

Our RMIT Skills and Jobs Centre are also offering 4 new online workshops:

- Goal Setting Workshop
- Future of Work Talk
- Resume Cover Letter Writing Workshop
- Steer Your Career Workshop

To book, please fill out our online booking form or email us at student.recruitment@rmit.edu.au.

Discover What's Next Series

We're excited to introduce a series of webinars that provide students and parents information on our wide range of study areas.

Attendees will have the opportunity to ask questions to RMIT staff and students about the courses they're interested in.

RMIT Trivia Tuesday

Tuesday 16th June, 6.00-6.45pm

Join the fun with high school students in Australia and around the world for RMIT's Trivia Tuesday!

Our current students will run a quiz with questions that will test your general knowledge, your powers of deduction and your all-round ability to make an educated guess!

We have an RMIT Prize Bundle worth over $125 to give away to the winner – be in it to win it!

To play, register at the link.

Short Courses going online in June

RMIT Short Courses will be delivered online from June, conducted live by an expert facilitator with active discussion and interaction to maximise learning.

Students in these courses will be well supported throughout the course from our industry experts working with Industry Experts from the School of Vocational Design and Social Context.

For further information on dates and fees, see the article here.

CI White Card – book your school group

The CI White Card one-day course is suited to anyone wanting to gain the mandatory competency for undertaking construction work on site.

The RMIT Short Courses team can book you a specific course on your required date and are currently delivering remotely/online. Courses require a minimum of 8 and maximum of 10 students in attendance.

The course covers content regarding health and safety legislative requirements, prevent industry or harm, identifying and verbally reporting common construction hazards, correctly select and fit common personal protective equipment (PPE) and much more.

For more information on the course, please view the course page.

To book, please get in touch with the Student Recruitment team and we will pass on your request.

RMIT Activator: 7 Pivots & Highlights

The RMIT Activator cultivate an entrepreneurial mindset among the RMIT community and support venture creation and growth, and provide skills and support for facing challenges head on.

Here are 7 examples of how pivoting creates new solutions and horizons which others have yet to imagine:

1. Working from home opened a new market for tech startup;
2. Chatbots enable hospitality services to go online;
3. Guided meditations brought to your home;
4. Upskilling job-seekers for the future of hospitality;
5. Community initiatives for car owners;
6. Huge boost to help teen girls cultivate mental well-being;
7. Using A.I to guide organisations into the future of work.

RMIT Career Advisers' Update - June Issue

Planes back in the skies

Pilot training at the Point Cook and Bendigo airports has resumed under strict biosecurity conditions.

Instructors and students are only at the airports when flying or debriefing. Each person undertakes a temperature check before entering the premises and must wear masks.

“When we entered lock-down we moved theory classes to a live online platform. For example, our instructor at Bendigo instructs from the hangar as students watching from home. It has been really successful. We’ve purchased a special sanitiser and cockpits are sanitised between flights,” said Mike Heffey, who heads up Flight Training.

“Starting with pilots able to fly solo, we began the phased return on May 11. It was up to each student and instructor as to whether they returned to flying or not.”

Students who must fly with instructors are also now back in the skies.

For students interested in Flight Training at RMIT, tune into our Discover What’s Next Flight Training & Aviation webinar on Tuesday 30 June at 6pm.
